PROGRAM

2018

Welcome to fringe

Welcome to the NSW Labor Fringe Program

Saturday 30 June - Sunday 1 July 2018

The NSW Labor Annual State Conference is the largest political gathering of its kind in Australia.

More than 2000 Delegates, Party Members and Parliamentarians gather in the Sydney Town Hall to debate and shape Labor's policy and rules.

The Fringe Program runs alongside the action on Conference Floor.

It is an opportunity for our movement to debate, connect, promote and share ideas.

Our Fringe Events range from discussions of big policy ideas to presentations on the latest campaign techniques.

We look forward to hearing more about your big idea or project at this Conference!

Nos. M.

Kaila Murnain General Secretary, NSW Labor

Where You Learn, Where You Live -The Fight Against Sexual Assault On Our Campuses

12:00PM - 12:50PM LOWER TOWN HALL 1

NSW Labor has led the way in fighting to stop sexual assault on University and TAFE campuses by committing to mandatory consent training for staff and residents at residential colleges, a standard sexual assault reporting model which recognises the rule of law, and specialised services for victims of sexual assault on campus. It is clear that universities are failing to meet their legal obligations to protect students.

In response to the Red Zone report, the Federal Parliamentary Party and Deputy Leader of the Opposition have signalled robust interventions to hold universities accountable and force them to act on the scourge of sexual assault and harassment. We need comprehensive action on campuses to protect all students regardless of their accommodation type and citizenship status.

Join the panel as we discuss the next steps in ending sexual assault on campus, and what needs to be done in the Federal Parliament, State Parliament and the activist space.

SPEAKERS: Tanya Plibersek MP, Deputy Leader of the Opposition, Jenny Aitchison MP, Shadow Minister for the Prevention of Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault, Jo Haylen MP, Nina Funnell, Walkley Award-winning journalist and lead author of The Red Zone Report and Angela Griffin, UNSW Women's Officer and Young Labor activist.

Strengthening Inclusion, Strengthening Schools

12:00PM - 12:50PM DRUITT ST FOYER

Each and every child, no matter who they are, deserves a fair chance to fulfil their potential, to feel valued and have a place in their local school. We know that children learn better with their peers in an inclusive teaching environment, that is safe and supportive. After the recent Parliamentary Inquiry on the Education of Children with Disability and Special Needs, the New South Wales government recognised that "more can be done to support students with disability and that an inclusive education approach is not currently experienced by all students". How is international 'best practice' currently being overlooked and how can we work together to forge a better future for children with disability?

SPEAKERS: Kathy Cologon, Senior Lecturer, Inclusive Education, Macquarie University, Yolande Cailley, parent advocate, and Cecile Sullivan Elder, Executive Officer, Family Advocacy.

Campaign Insight

Masterclass: What Do I Need to Know?

1:00PM - 1:50PM DRUITT ST FOYER

In 2000, NSW Labor launched the ten week Campaign Insight Intensive training programme. Joanna Bitar, the program's founder, will be chairing a panel of her former students to discuss the changes in campaigning over the past 18 years, and how the theory they learnt in Campaign Insight held up on the ground.

With more than 15 years having passed since their training, this is an event not to be missed as these Campaign Veterans are sure to have some stories!

SPEAKERS: Verity Firth, UTS Executive Director Social Justice and former NSW Minister for Education and Training, Korena Flanagan, Chief of Staff to Shadow Minister Jason Clare, Media Advisor and Policy Advisor to former Prime Ministers and Premiers, Emma Murphy, staffer to Liesl Tesch, and previously Chief of Staff to former Deputy Premier John Watkins, and Elias Hallaj, ALP International Project Officer and former Secretary ALP ACT Branch.
